Cookie Policy

1. WHAT IS A COOKIE?

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer, if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. To find out more about cookies, visit https://www.cookiebot.com/

2. ABOUT OUR USE OF COOKIES

2.1   Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and allow us to improve our site. By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

2.2   When you visit our website, we may automatically collect the following information:

2.2.1 technical information, including the Internet Protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the Internet, browser type and version, time zone setting, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform; and

2.2.2 information about your visit, including the full Uniform Resource Locators (URL) clickstream to, through and from our website (including the date and time); pages you viewed or searched for; page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information (such as scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs), and methods used to browse away from the page and any phone number used to call our number.

3. COOKIES WE USE AND WHY

3.1   Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website or make use of e-billing services.

3.2   Analytical/ performance cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

3.3   Google Advertising cookies. Google Analytics Display Advertiser features are enabled for the Google Analytics property this website is tagged with. This means that Google Analytics will drop additional cookies on your browser and collect data using and identifiers, in addition to data collected through a standard Google Analytics implementation. For more information about Google's Advertising Cookies and how you can control advertising cookies visit How Google uses cookies – Privacy & Terms – Google

3.4   Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences.

3.5   Marketing cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising around the web more relevant to you. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.
